We hold our reservations with a credit card and our discounts are with our Experience Card (free grocery loyalty patron card.)

Public Classes:

The day of the class, see the Store Manager at the front of the store where the cashiers are located. We accept cash, credit card or check. You will receive two receipts, one for you and one for the class instructor. Write your name on the bottom of one of the receipts and hand it to the class instructor. Menus are subject to change at the chef's discretion. Public Classes include recipes, hands-on or demonstration and sample tastings.

Private Classes:

Reservations are held just like the public classes (see above.) Payment is the done at the end of the class and a service gratuity would be appreciated but is not required. Private Classes include recipes, hands-on or demonstration and sample tastings.

Cancellation and Final Count Policy:

At the time of the reservation date, a 50% deposit will be charged on your credit card for the first 10 people and the remainder according to your final count will be made the day of the event. Full refund of deposit will be made 30 days out from the event. We will call back to confirm the cancellation and deposit will be reimbursed. If the cancellation is made after the 30 days from the reservation date the deposit will be kept. A final count 1 week before the event.

Looking forward to cooking with you all!!!!
